*AFFIRMATION

"The Bible"

Leader All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

People The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of God will stand forever.

Leader For the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

People This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth; But you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success.

Leader The law of the LORD is perfect, reviving the soul. The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple. The precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart.

People More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb; in keeping them there is great reward.

Leader Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your word.

People I will delight myself in your word.

All I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you. Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path. Amen.

Words on Worship

Today the United Methodist Church celebrates Laity Sunday. This year's theme is "Therefore Go! With HOPE Through Hospitality." We may think of hospitality as how we receive guests in our midst, but the reality is we practice, and also receive, hospitality wherever we are, even when we are outside our home or church. How we do both...offer and receive...reflects how we live out the calling of God upon our lives. The laity is the front line of daily ministry at the workplace, in the home and within the community. May we strive to reflect Christ and his hospitality in all we do.
