“Psalm 19”

The heavens declare the glory of God;
the skies proclaim the work of his hands.
 Day after day they pour forth speech;
night after night they reveal knowledge.
 They have no speech, they use no words;
no sound is heard from them.
 Yet their voice goes out into all the earth,
their words to the ends of the world.
 The law of the Lord is perfect,
 refreshing the soul.
The statutes of the Lord are trustworthy,
making wise the simple.
 The precepts of the Lord are right,
 giving joy to the heart.
The commands of the Lord are radiant,
giving light to the eyes.

WORDS ON WORSHIP

The Chancel area contains furnishings that function within our time of worship. The table – variously known as the Lord’s table, holy table, Communion table, altar table, or altar – functions primarily as the place where the holy meal that we call the Lord’s Supper or Holy Communion is celebrated and served. As such, it symbolizes God’s presence in the church and is the symbolic center of the church’s life. It is the center of actions in our worship, uniting us to God and to one another.
